

11 January 2006

Dear resident

I am writing to thank everyone who took the time to join us at Withersdane on Monday (9 January 2006) for our briefing on Imperial College's vision for Wye College.

I would also like to express my sincere apologies to those Wye residents who had travelled to the meeting but were unable to come in to the venue. We had an enormous level of interest and, unfortunately, on reaching our capacity of 550, we had to restrict access due to fire regulation and health and safety concerns.

For those who were unable to join us, a report of the meeting will be available shortly and will be publicised both on our website - www.imperial.ac.uk/wye - and sent to the homes of every resident in Wye. I will be happy to try and answer any concerns or questions you may have as a result of reading this information. Please send them by email to me at wye.enquiries@imperial.ac.uk, or by letter to Professor Sir Leszek Borysiewicz, c/o Mrs Wendy Raeside, Press and Public Relations Officer, Imperial College London Wye campus, High Street, Wye, Ashford, Kent, TN25 5AH.

Finally, let me assure you that Monday's meeting was the first of many briefing sessions we plan to hold for the local community in Wye and surrounding villages. We will let you know the dates for these briefings as soon as they are arranged.

Yours sincerely,

Professor Sir Leszek Borysiewicz
Deputy Rector
